

Relive your childhood

YAMINI
A FARMHOUSE PROJECT

“Somewhere on my journey across the silver screen, I lost touch with the simple pleasures of life. Yes, success has a way of taking away things once precious to us. But, again, it is, may be, one of the only ways of getting back things once lost. Like the joys of a lost childhood amidst the environs of your very own farmhouse. With its very own pond, kitchen garden and playground.

Unlock the lost treasures of your golden years with YAMINI.”

Roopa Ganguly

50 individual farmhouses, each built on 20 cottahs, starting at Rs. 55 lac.*
